Location WV3 – Rock type C

Rock type C is not well-exposed and forms less of a feature in comparison with the impressive cliffs formed by rock type B.  You can examine it here in this small exposure set back a few metres from the main track, again on the uphill side of the path.  Be sure to look at the exposure at the back of this area, furthest from the path.