

Location WV32

This a small exposure that is just off the main track, heading south-west if you are coming from Location 27. You can also get here if you are coming from Location 33 – follow the big wall on uphill (it's not a proper path, but easy to follow) and you will find this exposure just before you meet the main track at the top. The rocks here mostly react well with dilute HCl.

