Location WV6 – Rock type F

Rock type F is exposed in cliffs on either side of the path as it passes through a narrow cutting. There is plenty to look at here, but some features are subtle and you need to look carefully. This rock produces a very good reaction with dilute HCl.